The memorialist has obtained a large number of signatures in the Mysore City in support of his application commencing with that of the President, City Municipal Council. He states in his memorial that cows which are looked upon as sacred by all Hindus and which, dumb as they are, are so serviceable to man have in their old age been left helpless and handed over to the butchers for slaughter week after week, that on 20th March 1915 the influential Hindu and Muhammadan residents of Shimsapatna joined together & started a Gorakshakasala under the patronage of the present Dewan of Mysore, that the want of such an institution in the capital city of Mysore is a great desideratum and that as in ancient days the Dharma or duty of protecting cows and other creatures of the dumb creation which have become old and unserviceable after their period of usefulness is over devolves on the Kshatriya caste, on great Princes and others, and prays therefore that though at present it is not possible to prevent the wholesale slaughter of cows, at least old and superannuated cows may be spared so as to conduce to the well-being of the Sovereign, and the Mysore city and it seems to be high time that this is done.

11. From the point of view of sentiment, the object is no doubt praiseworthy but it is a question how far in these days of utilitarian ideas, the scheme will be workable. A modest beginning might be made by starting a small institution in the vicinity of Mysore but obviously no compulsion can be exercised on the owners to send their elephants to this institution. There is however no doubt that the institution will be largely taken advantage of by at least the superior classes with the aid of such persuasion as the present promoters may bring to bear.

12. Such organisations should however be initiated and run by private agency and the sympathy of Govt. in a substantial way might be shown by allowing the free use of some grazing ground ~~or other~~ or free permits to graze in Govt. Kavals and by a money grant to pay the establishment etc.
